

Tiziana Soudani – Amka Film

Tiziana Soudani was born in the Italian-speaking region of Switzerland and studied Languages and Business Administration. After experience in film production, she founded her own production company, Amka Films, in 1987.

From 1992 until 1995 she was the assistant of the director of the Locarno International Film Festival, during which time she also worked as a coordinator for the Fondation Montecinemaverità, which promoted African cinema at various festivals and events.

From 2000 until 2001, she was responsible for the EXPO 2002 for the production of 143 documentary films for the project ONOMA (in cooperation with 38 directors and 16 production companies from Switzerland)

From 2000 until 2007 she was an instructor in Production at the «Conservatorio di scienze audiovisive» (CISA) in Lugano

FEATURE FILMS (a selection):

2011 Corpo Celeste

2010 La scuola è finita

2007 Giorni e Nuvole

2003 Vodka Lemon

2000 Pane e Tulipani

1997 Waalo Fendo

1997 Homère or "Nel profondo paese straniero"

1993 Au Nom du Christ